PART I. REGISTRATION INFORMATION, GENERAL INFORMATION AND SERVICES

In this bulletin you will find information on graduate and undergraduate courses on the Mansfield University campus and continuing education courses at selected sites throughout the Twin Tiers. The bulletin has information on how to register for courses, how and where to pay fees and where to get more help when you need it. We do try to make sure information is accurate; however, the university reserves the right to make changes when necessary without prior notice. Note: You may not preregister if you owe more than $100 on your account. Please contact the Revenue Office to settle your account before you register.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

ON-CAMPUS GRADUATE COURSES

Students wishing to register for an on-campus graduate class may do so by using either of the following options:

Option A By Mail or in Person (no telephone registrations)

1. Return both the preregistration and revenue forms along with your payment to the Graduate Office by July 18, 1988.
2. You will be sent a copy of your schedule and an "I Am Here" confirmation form. This form must be returned to complete your registration and can be turned in on the first night of class at registration in Doane Center Lobby from 5:30-6:30p.m. on August 31, September 1, 6, & 12. Failure to return this form will result in your preregistration being dropped from your schedule.

Option B

1. Graduate students who have not preregistered for class by July 18 may register and pay fees the first night of their on-campus class from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. in Doane Lobby on August 31, September 1, 6, and 12, 1988.
2. Students who do not make payment or arrangements for payment at that time will be unable to register. Please note: Do not preregister for on-campus graduate courses by telephone.

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES (All off-campus offerings)

Students wishing to preregister for any graduate or undergraduate class being offered off-campus may do so in one of the three following ways:

Option A In Person

Student may register and pay for the course at either of the following registration sites.

Robert Packer Hospital Patterson Building Room A
Sayre, Pennsylvania
Monday, August 22, 1988 5:00-6:30 p.m.

Towanda High School

Option C By Mail

Students may preregister for the course by returning a completed preregistration form, revenue form, and payment to the Division of Continuing Education at least one week prior to first class meeting. Your registration will be confirmed when your fees have been met and you have completed the "I Am Here" form. This can be done at the first class.

On-campus Undergraduate Evening Courses
Students wishing to register for any undergraduate evening courses being offered on campus may do so in either of the following manners.

Option A Preregistration By Mail
Students may preregister for on-campus undergraduate evening courses by completing both the preregistration and revenue forms and returning them along with payment to the Records Office no later than July 18, 1988. The Records Office will process this information and send you a copy of your course schedule, and "I Am Here" confirmation card, and instructions for confirmation of registration. If we cannot accommodate your request due to lack of space, you will be notified in early August by the Records Office.

Option B Registration In Person
Students may register for on-campus undergraduate evening courses during special evening registration sessions which will be held on the first night of evening courses (August 31, September 1, 6 & 12, 1988 from 5:30-6:30PM in the Records Office, Rm. 112, South Hall. Tuition and fees must also be paid at this time.

Confirmation of registration procedure for on-campus undergraduate evening courses: Students must be pre-paid or make arrangement for payment through the Revenue Office. Students must then return completed drop/add and "I Am Here" confirmation cards to the Records Office on August 30 or the first night of class. Failure to do so will result in your schedule for Fall courses being cancelled.

MUS 597 Recital (2Gcr)-Students performing recitals in lieu of writing a thesis or research project reports register for this course. The formal recital given in the major performing medium represents the culmination of study in the applied area. (Mansfield University)

PSYCHOLOGY

PSY 101 Introduction to General Psychology (3Ucr)-Designed to familiarize students with the application of scientific psychology to human life. Emphasis is on "normal" behavior and its antecedents. The study of broad categories of human behavior through various psychological models and their application to understanding human behavior. (Sayre)

PSY 290 Life Span Development (3Ucr)-A broad survey of what is presently known about the highly interactive aspects of human behavioral development: Biological, psychological, and social. Prerequisite: PSY 101. (Wellsboro)

PSY 502 Personality and Behavior Pathology (3Gcr)-A contemporary overview of personality and behavior pathology. The history of abnormal psychology, clinical syndromes, contrasting conceptual models of disordered behavior, and applications in schools, courts and community settings. Emphasis is placed upon the special problems of referral, diagnosis and treatment in rural areas. This course will be offered simultaneously at the College of the Finger Lakes and Mansfield University using the instructional medium of audio-conferencing. Students will group at CCFL and Mansfield University and communicate with each other using a telephone line and individual microphones. Dr. Keller will attend each site personally on alternate weeks.
Audio-conferencing has great potential for bringing people together over large geographic regions and will present a unique opportunity for students to become proficient with this technology. (Mansfield University and Corning)

PSY 531 Individual Cognitive and Social Assessment (3Gcr)-Introduction to the use of individual tests of intelligence, techniques of clinical interviewing, including measures of cognitive and social development. An introduction is given to neuropsychological screening measures. Computerized analysis of test results supplements the students understanding of test interpretation and intervention planning. (Mansfield University)

PSY 540 Individual Methods of Behavior Change (3Gcr)-Problem-oriented methods of individual behavior change, including brief forms of psychotherapy, behavior modification and crisis intervention, are considered in light of their application in modern community mental health programs. The course prepares the student for application of these methods during an internship. (Mansfield University)

PSY 551 Professional Psychology in the Rural Community (3Gcr)-The psychological and social structures of rural communities. Emphasis is placed on the mental health and other human services which function in the rural community. Field visits are required. (Mansfield University)

PSY 554 Professional Psychology Seminar (1Gcr for 3rd semester of course)-A course to help students integrate thinking about major areas related to community psychology and rural mental health. Assigned presentations and discussions are required. Each student must complete three semesters of this seminar prior to being recommended for the degree. (Mansfield University)

PSY 560 Community Internship (9Gcr)-A minimum of 600 hours of supervised psychological experience in an approved facility offering community mental health services to the public. Facilities serving rural areas are given priority. The internship is normally completed during one academic semester. (Mansfield University)

SOCIOLOGY/SOCIAL WORK

SOC 101 Introduction to Sociology (3Ucr)-Introduction to the basic concepts, premises, and techniques involved in the scientific approach to the study of human societies. Analysis is made of selected aspects of social behavior at interpersonal, intergroup and societal levels of contemporary American Society. (Sayre)

PART VI. Non-credit Offerings

Get aboard for Fall! The Non-Credit Activities Office will offer a variety of non-credit courses ranging from stress management, time management, microwave cooking, and S.A.T. preparation, to introduction to personal computers. These short-term courses give the adult learners and younger students the opportunity to acquire knowledge and skills for job advancement or personal satisfaction while working with others that have similar interests.

The Non-Credit Office can tailor non-credit educational and business development programs to the needs of your particular client groups. We have the flexibility of varying the programs in length and format. Programs can be delivered on campus, at work sites, or in any location convenient to the client group. If you have such a request, call us at 717-662-4244.

For a complete listing of our workshops, seminars, and non-credit courses call the Non-Credit Activities Office at 717-662-4244, or write for a listing; Doane Center, Rm. 206, Mansfield University, Mansfield Pa. 16933

Watch local newspapers in August for a comprehensive directory of Fall activities.
